

Joanna Peters

Joanna Peters is the Founding Principal of StratConGlobal, Inc. Using her law degree and business expertise, she has originated strategic businesses with an investor focus and created an institutional standard for cross border and emerging markets transactions.

Joanna brings a proven track record as a global strategic thinker to build outs and turnarounds in the emerging markets (India, Korea, Taiwan, Indonesia, Vietnam, Latin America, Eastern Europe and the Middle East). She has driven rollups in Asia and the United States, and acted as advisor and interim COO/CFO on new private equity ventures in the offshore oil and gas sectors as well as in the Australian livestock sector. Prior to StratConGlobal, Joanna built off shore businesses as well as banking and capital markets activities for various diversified financial firms Citi, ABN and AMEX.

Joanna is a Best Practice Industry Speaker here and abroad. She is active in various industry events including annual Private Equity Summits, JP Morgan Women CEO/CFO Leadership Forum, Healthcare and Education Symposia. She participates in government studies and private sector forums including the Peterson Institute and Volker Alliance. Previously she served as an Executive Committee Chair of 100 Women in Hedge Funds, co-founding/chairing the Peer Advisory Councils, as well as four years on the Board of a New York City magnet school, Stuyvesant High School.

Joanna is a director of non public companies and a member of The Economic Club of New York, and served on its membership committee. Joanna is a graduate of the University of Melbourne where she captained the women's ski team. She is admitted to the Bar in New York and Australia.

Education

University of London, Masters of Laws
University of Melbourne, Bachelor of Law with Honours